Disease Getting Good Foothold In Rural Communities.

NEW ORLEANS IS VERY HOPEFUL

Comparison of Figures of this Year With the Year of 1879 It Will Be Seen that the Situation is a Great Deal Better Now.

Total to date—1,515.
Deaths 1.
Total deaths to date 215.

Yellow fever conditions within New Orleans are now completely overshadowed by those withqut the city. The saddest of reports come from small towns adjacent to New Orleans, where in some cases the inhabitants are absolutely helpless because of a lack of medical attention and otherwise inadequate weakness to cope with the fever. Leeville, with a population of 1,500, reports nearly two-thirds of that number stricken and only one doctor to attend them.

New Orleans, La., August 24.—The yellow fever situation here today showed little change. The usual number of new cases were reported by physicians. Some of the suspicious cases which reached the Marine hospital subsequently develop to be dengue, but no arrangement has yet been made to substract them from the totals of cases of yellow fever to date. Surgeon General Wyman today sent a personal telegram here asking for special accommodation for Professor Royce, of the Liverpool school of tropical medicine who is coming to New Orleans to study the fever and give any assistance that lies in his power. He is to be cordially welcomed and every provision is to be made for his comfort while he is here.

Dr. White has not yet completed his plans for his additional detention hospital, but is giving them attention. The hospital can quickly be equipped when the site has been selected.

Fever Raging in Rural Districts.

While the fever in New Orleans is submitting to control the situation in the country districts is less promising, and the state board of health and the marine hospital service now have their hands full in trying to send adequate assistance to those settlements which are struggling with the disease.

Scarcely a day passes without the report of some newly infected point and unless doctors and nurses are sent from here there is no assurance that the fever will not spread. The worst spot thus far discovered is that at Leeville, near the mouth of LaFourche, where nearly two-thirds of a settlement of 300 people has been infected and where a number of deaths have occurred. Only one doctor is on the scene and the difficulties are increased by the fact that the settlement lies on two banks of a rather wide stream. President Souchon and his froces were today engaged in making preparations to send relief to Dr. Devron, while at the same time taking precautions to cut off communication between Leesville and New Orleans.

There is some fear that the Italians will try to return here, thereby adding to the infection which already exists in the foreign quarters. Assistance, however, is being asked by other points in the matter of physicians and nurses. There is a steady increase of the disease at Hanson City in St. Charles parish, the infection is scattered and increasing and beyond the control of the force thus far sent there; an inspector is asked for for Port Barrow in Ascension parish, the infected points in St. Mary are asking for more help, and St. Bernard with it slarge Italian population is likely to need aid.

New Orleans Still Hopeful.

Meantime hopefulness continues to pervade New Orleans. The new cases show no increase but on the contrary are slightly declining, which is the reverse of the experience in 1878. In [illegible] there were 186 new cases on the 14th, and thereafter with three exceptions to the end of the month the daily report exceeded 100, reaching 220 on the 28th, and 234 on the 31st. Eight new foci appeared above Canal street in the preceding 24 hours, but all were widely scattered, and confidence continues that it is impossible for the infection to get a firm grip on that section. There is one case in the Holy Cross college, a prominent Catholic institution. The school is now in vacation and strenuous efforts will be made to destroy the focus there in order not to interfere with its re-opening.

The Italians in the city here are receiving appeals from their countrymen in the various infected districts in the country for financial assistance and medical relief arrives. They will do all in their power to answer the appeals though already greatly burdened by the local demands made upon them.

In spite of the severity of the quarantines the state engineers are making diligent efforts to keep their levee campaign under way. The work has been much interfered with, but Chief Engineer Kerr said today that he hoped to be able to carry many of the contracts through before high water.

Veterans' Reunion Called Off.

Nashville, August 24—A Chattanooga dispatch says:

On account of the yellow fever scare Wilder's brigade will not hold its annual reunion in this city at the time of the reunion of the society of the Army of the Cumberland. A letter to this effect has been received from Commander Kilborn.

NEW WIRELESS APPARATUS.

New Invention a Valuable One—Register's Fly's Footsteps.

San Francis, August 24.—A dispatch to the Examiner from Benicia says:

"A new wireless instrument weighing but a pound and a half and found by the extensive tests to give better results than the most cumbersome machines in use, has been invented at Benicia barracks by Hugh Annis, a young soldier of the signal corps. The machine has transmitted and received messages from Mare island and the Yerba Buna station time after time. The apparatus is now being used at the barracks, and has met with high commendation from the officials of the signal corps.

A fly walking on the outside of a box can be distinctly heard through the receiver at a distance of several feet, while, if placed on the ground, the machine will record the foosteps of a man walking a hundred or more feet away. The materials used in the construction of the instrument are simple.

Death Rate of Negroes Large.

Birmingham, Ala., Augustt 24.—The semi-annual report of the city health officer made public shows the death rate among negroes in the city to be much larger than the birth rate. The negro birth rate per 1,000 is 21.12 and the death rate 33.32. The white birth rate is 17.14 and death rate 13.29. In commenting on the figures the health officer says the large death rate among negroes is due to the crowded quarters in which they live, which makes tuberculosis very prevalent.

Well Known Educator Dead.

Colorado Springs, Col., August 24.—Lester McLean, former assistant secretary of the international committee of the Bible study department of the Young Men's Christian association, traveling among the colleges of the United States, died tonight from typhoid fever, after a month's illness. Three hours after his death his family received news of his appointment to a fellowship in the Imperial University at Tokio, apan.

Roosevelt Will Visit the South.

Mobile, Ala., August 24.—A telegram to the editor of the Daily Item from President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay says he has as yet made no change in his plans for his proposed southern trip. This is construed as meaning that the president will keep his appointments as far south as Mobile.

CONFERENCE AWAITS THE CZAR'S ANSWER

To Compromise as Offered by President Roosevelt.

ENVOYS FAVOR PROPOSITION

However, the Whole Matter Now Hinges Upon the Opinion of the Emperor of Russia—Prominent Russian Says "There Is Still Hope."

Portsmouth, N. H., August 24.—Mr. Witte and Baron Rosen arrived at the navy yard for the day's session of the peace conference at 9:25 o'clock this morning. Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira came five minutes afterward and the session was begun at once.

Baron de Rosen and Mr. Naboukoff, M. Witte's secretary, on entering their motor car at 9 o'clock appeared excessively gay, greeting the crowd assembled to see them off with broad smiles and cheering good mornings and the physiognomy readers instantly translated what they had seen as a certain augurry that peace would virtually be arranged today. To the more careful observer, however, the smiles of the Russians appeared forced and beneath the gay exterior there was an expression of anxiety. Baron Komura, Mr. Sato and Mr. Adashimi appeared in the main veranda with faces composed and inscrutinable as ever. They, too, smiled in response to the greetings of their partisans, but there was no excessive manifestation of exuberance.

The popular belief was that the treaty would decide the issue but the Associated Press had what it considered certain warrant for the statement that such would no tbe the case. Were it to go to a complete show down of hands, a rupture was certain since the long cablegram of instructions which M. Witte received from his government last night would not permit him to accept the compromise which is was understood Japan was prepared to offer this morning as a result of the president's heroic endeavors to save the conference.

The rumor telegraphed to the Associated Press after midnight was confirmed this morning, but it requires an important explanatory statement. The cablegram from St. Petersburg was sent before M. Witte had communicated to the emperor the contents of the communication from President Roosevelt, delivered to him yesterday afternoon at the navy yard. Hence it was not necessary to be accepted as the emperor's last word and M. Witte, who, there is reason to believe, is personally in sympathy with the compromise suggested, went to the conference prepared to spar for time. It was believed that at the conclusion of the sitting today an adjournment will be taken over tomorrow upon some pretext o rother in order to give M. Witte an opportunity to hear further from his government. A high Russian authority summed up the situation this morning with the words:

"There is still hope."

Almost to a man the members of the missions will personally favor the compromise suggested by the president. In their opinion it offers an honorable road to peace. But they are powerless if the emperor and his advisors stand firm. The Russians realize that the turn of events have taken will put their country in a difficult position if a rupture comes now. Japan will stand before the world as not implacable, but ready to accept a compromise on the two main issues "by this arrangement to practically yield in whole or in part article 5 (cession of Sakhalin), while obtaining in substance if not in form, article 9 (remuneration for the cost of the war).

Czar Receives American.

St. Petersburg, August 24—Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador went this afternoon to Peterhoff where he was received in audience by the emperor. The audience concerns the possible conclusion of peace.

HORRIBLE CRIME REVEALED.

Wife's Paramour Holds Husband While She Breaks His Neck.

Knoxville, Tenn., August 24.—The little daughter of Mrs. Jno. Lea, lately a widow by the supposerd suicide of her husband, a sawmill man, who resided near Cleveland, Tenn., confessed to her grandmother, at Murray, Ga., where she had been sent on a visit, that her mother and James Hix, also a sawmill man, who boarded at the home of the Leas, killed her father.

The story is one of the most revolting in the criminal annals of Tennessee. Lea was found hanging by a rope which was attached to one of the beams of the saw mill, his neck broken. A coroner's jury pronounced him a suicide. Then Hix and Mrs. Lea disappeared.

The little girl declares that Hix held her father while her mother broke his neck with a weapon, Hix telling her where to strike.

They threatened to kill the child if she told, according to the little one. Hix has been arrested at Spring Place, Ga., and officers are looking for Mrs. Lea at Sherman Heights, Tenn., where she is visiting.

It is hinted that others know of the alleged crime, but have not told for reasons not explained.

Virginia Democrats Name Ticket.

Richmond, Va., August 24.—In the Democratic state primary, Thomas E. Martin was nominated to succeed himself in the United States senate, and Representative Claude A. Swanson, of the fifth congressional district, to succeed Andrew J. Montague, as the governor of the state, by large majorities. Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson, of the Democratic state committee, was nominated for the lieutenant governorship by an overwhelming vote. William A. Anderson was chosen for re-election as attorney general, and J. D. Eggleston, Jr., of Prince Edward county, was nominated for superintendent of public construction by majorities approximating those of the leaders of the ticket.

Killed by Benzine Explosion.

Chicago, August 24—A dispatch to the Tribune from St. Louis says: Dr. William Binninger, a member of the faculty of Marion Sims Medical college was killed by an explosion of benzine in the laboratory of his home last night. The sacrifice of his life was indirectly due to his zeal in prosecuting a systematic study of the symptoms and cure of consumption. He was cleaning the lens of his microscope when he was using as a cleansing agent became ignited and the explosion followed. Dr. Rininger was an enthusiastic microscopist, and in the last six months has devoted much leisure to the study of consumption.

700-Pound Man Dead.

Indianapolis, August 24—Philip Kerigh, "Indiana's 700 pound man," is dead at his home in Stilesville. He had been ill several months with dropsy and suffered greatly during the hot weather. For several years Kerigh was in the employ of a circus where he was advertised as the largest man in the world. His weight often reached 775 pounds. He was over 7 feet high but his bones were very small. It required two tailors to take his measurements for his clothes., a sit was impossible for one man to reach around his body. It took seven yards of double-width goods to make him a suit.

THREE KILLED IN RAILROAD WRECK

Two Frieght Trains Collide on the Union Pacific.

TWO ENGINES ARE DEMOLISHED

Those Killed Were Members of Train Crew of an Extra Eastbound Wheat Train—Wreck Occurred on a Sharp Curve—List of Dead.

Topeka, Kans., August 24.—Three persons were killed early today in a head-on collision between two Union Pacific, 18 miles west of Topeka.

The dead are:

William H. Gibson, engineer, Kansas City, Kans.

—— Oleson, fireman.

Clarence Reese, conductor.

Nobody was seriously injured.

The three men killed were members of the crew of an extra eastbound wheat train which crashed into the second section of a regular westbound train at a sharp cuve.

Two members of the crew of the regular train are missing, but a search of the wreckage reveals only two bodies. Both locomotives were demolished.

ROBBER MURDERS WOMAN

Two Ladies Attacked by Footpad in Heart of Chicago.

Chicago, August 24.—Mrs. S. P. Mize of New York city, was murdered by a robber while taking an evening walk in one of the fashionable residence districts of the south side.

For the greater part of the summer Mrs. Mize has been a guest at the Del Prado hotel, which fronts on the midway plaisance. Tonight Mrs. Mize in company with Mrs. E. F. [illegible] of Las Cruces, N. Mex., also a guest at the hotel, she went out for a short walk. They had reached the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Washington avenue, two squares from the hotel, when they were confronted by a footpad who demanded their money or their jewelables. All along Fifty-ninth street and on Washington avenue many people were sitting upn verandas and in the front yards of their residences. But Mrs. Mize evidently expected no help from some of them, vigorously resisted the robber, at the same time calling loudly for help. Mrs. Wilson, her companion, turned and ran back toward the hotel.

Mrs. Mize was able to utter only a few cries for aid when the robber shot her through the heart, killing her instantly. Mrs. Wilson, who was looking back at the time, fell in a faint. The murderer escaped.

Fidelity Cast Man His Life.

St. Louis, Mo., August 24—Fireman Frank H. Spanning, is dead at his home in this city. Friends of the dead policeman say he never fully recovered from an illness which overcame him at the dedication of the world's fair when he was assigned to [illegible] watch the home of President Francis where President Roosevelt and Former President Cleveland were guests. The evening was caught in the rain and remained all night without protection. He contracted a severe cold and his throat and lungs were left in such a condition that he could not withstand the attacks of bronchitis which came several months ago.

Georgia Cotton Growers Meet.

Atlanta, Augustt 24.—Important resolutions outlining the plans of the Georgia divisions, Southern Cotton Association, were adopted at the closing convention of the state association held in the hall of the house of representatives at the capitol. Among the actions taken were resolutions declaring that the price of cotton should be fixed at 10 cents per pound throughout the state; providing for the appointment of a committee to effect closer relations between the cotton growers and the cotton spinners with a view to eliminating the speculative feature; declaring that all producers in Georgia should hold their cotton for the minimum price fixed by the executive committee at the coming meeting in Asheville, N. C.

FAMILY REUNION

And Enjoyable Neighborhood Picnic at Wacahoota.

On Friday, August 11th, quite a delightful picnic was held under the wide-spreading oak trees near the residence of L. M. Smith. Nice seats were placed here and there for those who liked to chat and enjoy the delightful breeze.

The croquet ground was full of happy girls and boys most of the day, while some who were of a more active nature enjoyed playing baseball and "drop the handkerchief," some of the elder people joining in these pastimes.

A delightful feature of the picnic was the reunion of the Smith family. The mother, Mrs. J. Porter Smith, a most lovable Christian lady, and all of her children, were present. It has been a number of years since they were all together and each made an effort to be present at this pleasant meeting, as will be seen by the distance some of them had to come. Messrs. Polie, Lawrence, Willie and Charlie Smith, with their families, reside in this community, while those from a distance were Mrs. Isaac Rawls, accompanied by her husband and one son, from Montbrook; Mrs. C. C. Pedrick and two charming daughters and son, and Mrs. Jim Bauknight and daughter from Gainesville; Mrs. Hazel and two sons from Johnston, S. C. A score or more of grandchildren were there to partake of the pleasures of the day, and we hope this happy family may have many more reunions.

The friends from a distance were Miss Irene Beck, Fellowship; Mrs. Raleigh Beck, Jacksonville; Mrs. Cone and son from Raleigh; George McDonell, Shell Pond; Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley, Plant City; Mrs. Gray and Rev. Prisco, Flemington; Miss Lizzie Matthews and brother, Tacoma.

At one o'clock a most bountiful repast was spread on the table which had been made for the occasion. All had good appetites for the dainties the ladies had prepared, and we think there were "twelve basketsful of fragments" when all had eaten until they felt as though they could not eat any more.

During the afternoon a shower came up and dampened the ground, but not the pleasure of the day, for the crowd repaired, to the house where the young ladies entertained them with music, while flinch and croconole were enjoyed by some.

Late in the afternoon the good-byes were said, each one having spent a lovely day and hope to spend many more as pleasantly together.

The party at the home of L. M. Smith, Friday evening, August 18th, was quite a success, and all had a royal good time, though the inclemency of the weather prevented some from a distance attending. Mrs. Smith and her accomplished daughter, Miss Marion, are charming hostesses and did themselves credit on this occasion.

He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At all drug stores; 50c and $1; guaranteed. Herbine

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches and over indulgence in food and drink. G. L. Caldwell, agent M. K. & T. R. R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. Sold by W. M. Johnston.

German Baby's Swaths.

Of all housewives in Europe probably the German is the hardest worked, and of all European mothers the German practices most completely the art of swathing and padding her baby and of putting it on the shelf. The German baby is swaddled in a long, narrow pillow, which is made to meet completely round him, being tucked up over his feet and turned under his solemn chin. Three bands of gay blue ribbons are then passed round the whole bundle and tied in large, florid bows about where his chest, his waist and his ankles may be supposed to be.

In this guise he can be deposited as an ornament either on the sumptuous best bed or on the kitchen dresser or on the drawing room table. How fond the Germans are of this presentment of baby may be guessed from the fact that it figures largely in their picture books, among their dolls and even in the bakers' shops at Easter time, made of dough and covered with sugar, to be devoured by greedily live babies.—Strand Magazine.

Fiendish Suffering

Is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm Bedell of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for ulcers, sores and cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at all drug stores; guaranteed.

The Student's Explanation.

Professor Tait had given as one of the questions in an examination paper, "Define transparent, translucent and opaque," which was dealt with by the student thus: "I cannot precisely define these terms, but I can indicate their meaning in this way: The windows of this classroom were once transparent, they are now translucent and if not cleaned very soon will be opaque."

The Sago Plant.

Sago is a nutritive, farinaceous substance obtained from the pith of several species of palms growing in such hot countries as Java and Sumatra. The stem, about fifteen to twenty feet long, is cut into pieces and the pith dug out and placed in a vessel having a sieve bottom. Water poured into the sieves washes the flour thus exposed into a second vessel. When the water is poured off and the residue becomes dry it is known as sago flour. The pith left behind forms what is known as common brown sago.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

THE DAILY SUN.

IS ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

MURDERED STEPNEY BROWN

Marsh DeBose Was Caught at Cadillac—He Will Answer to Charge of Murder—Took Place Near Melrose July 23—Both Colored.

After a family jar among some of the colored folks at Melrose, July 23, Marsh DeBose, a colored man of about 18 years, shot Stepney Brown, aged about 45 years, and it was declared that the overdose of buckshot he received in his anatomy was the prime factor in his sudden demise.

DeBose, the fellow who was behind the gun, made his escape, and since that time has been eluding the officers. Deputy Sheriff Granger of this city, who has proven himself a good one on such cases, took up the case and has been working it so effectually that he at last landed his man behind the bars in the Alachua county jail.

The fellow was caught in a saw mill nearCadillac, where he has been employed for a short time. It is said that DeBose did the shooting from ambush, being concealed when Brown was passing along the road.

DeBose denies all knowledge of the affair, but Deputy Granger thinks he has sufficient evidence to convict him, from eye-witnesses of the affair. The officer certainly deserves credit for his good work.

THE FAIR ASSOCIATION.

It is Now Well Organized, and Some Excellent Work is Being Done.

The Alachua County Fair Association, which was organized a few days ago as an adjunct to the Florida State Midwinter Fair Association, has gotten matters down to a systematic basis, with the result that very encouraging work is already being done by the commissioners, as well as other members of the Association.

It will be remembered that a number of commissioners were appointed from various sections of the county. Care was taken to appoint men of energy and influence, and so far the Association has not been disappointed, for many have gone vigorously and enthusiastically to work, and write that fine progress is being made, a number of exhibits for the State Fair having already been promised.

Maj. J. W. Tench, who has been appointed by the board of directors as collector and manager of exhibits, went to his duties with commendable promptness and energy, and deserves credit for his efforts, which are bound to bear fruit. Major Tench is determined that old Alachua will be among the first counties at the Fair as regards a general exhibit.

Major Tench requests The Sun to suggest to the farmers that this is the season to select many products of the farm, such as squash, kershaw, marrow or Boston squash, etc., and he would be glad to have growers select the largest and most perfect of these varieties. He also wants to remind the colored people that there will be a special department for them, and there is no reason why the colored people of the county cannot make a fine showing as Alachua county contains some of the most thrifty and industrious of the race in the State.

The educational exhibit from Alachua county should prove a winner. Nowhere in Florida can be found better schools or more efficient teachers, as was proven at the State Fair in Jacksonville in 1900, when four out of seven gold educational medals were awarded to Alachua's exhibit. Let us all pull together.

Doctor Brigham Says

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties.

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, proprietor Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Escaped Lion Causes Panic.

New York, August 24.—A full grown lioness which escaped from her cage in a pleasure park near Vallsburg, N. J., caused a panic last night in a crowd of 5,000, including many women and children, who had gathered to watch the exhibition given by the trick bicyclist. When news of the animal's escape spread, there was a wild stampede for the streets, which lasted nearly fifteen minutes. Dozens of women and children were knocked down and bruised, while scores of men had their clothing almost torn off, but so far as could be learned, none was seriously hurt.

The Monster Diplodocus.

Dr. Andrew Wilson speaks of that huge extinct reptile, the diplodocus, whose bones Andrew Carnegie presented to the South Kensington museum in London as a "dragon." "If we could imagine it restored," says Dr. Wilson, "we should be tempted to imagine that the dragon legends of old had some foundation in fact. As a rule, these creatures—dinosaurs, as they are called—were huge, bulky animals. Mr. Carnegie's specimen has been estimated to have possessed a length in life of about seventy feet. The diplodocus, with regard to its personal characteristics, appears to have possessed a head of very moderate size indeed, considered relatively to the animal's bulk. Its jaws are weak, and its teeth are borne by the front of the jaws only. That it fed on soft vegetable matter would therefore appear to be an inference fairly warranted by the facts, yet, like the vegetarian elephant, it may have been capable of fierce onslaughts enough in its day. To feed on plants is not always commensurate with mildness of temper, as every vicious horse testifies. We may further believe that the diplodocus, if not a swimmer, at least had aquatic habits.

Making Marbles.

Germany maintains a monopoly of making stone marbles in spite of various efforts made to wrest the trade away. In the marble and agate quarries there are innumerable chips and bits of stone from the butting of the large blocks, and this refuse is broken into cubes about the size of a marble. An experienced worker produces these cubes of stone at an incredible speed and with remarkable uniformity. When about a bushel are ready they are dropped between a grooved bedstone and a revolving runner. Water is kept constantly supplied, and in half an hour the stones are turned out perfect spheres. With abundant water power the cost is slight, as a couple of men can keep a dozen stones supplied and the raw material costs nothing at all. In other countries the cost of preparing the blanks eats up the profits, and competition with the German made product is impossible.

The Highest Stairway.

For the ascent of Mount Omi, on the borderland between western China and the Tibetan plateau, there is an artificial staircase consisting of 20,000 steps cut in slippery limestone. Who made these steps is largely a matter of surmise, but they were probably formed by religious enthusiasts to provide a means of access from the hot plains, out of which the mountain mass rises abruptly to the heights, 5,000 to 11,000 feet above, among which the Buddhist abbey of Omi embodies some of the holiest traditions of the religion professed by its inmates. Anyhow, the staircase is there, and by it many pilgrims attain to the shrine as well as the very few Europeans who have ever visited this singular spot.

The Buried Bell.

Near the little village of Raleigh, in England, there is a hollow, said to have been caused by an earthquake centuries ago, which is said to have swallowed up a whole village, including the church. To this place the villagers of Raleigh were in the habit of repairing every Christmas morning, putting their ears to the ground and listening, as they asserted, to the church bell ringing beneath them! What was really heard was the bell of a neighboring church, the sound being borne along the surface of the ground. This custom was in existence, we believe, as late as half a century ago.—London Tit-Bits.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment; the first application giving my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

EDIBLE BIRDS' NESTS.

The Way They Are Gathered by Dyaks In Borneo.

Edible birds nests are found in clefts of rocks or in underground caves which are frequently of great extent. John MacGregor in writing of a bird nesting experience he had in Borneo says: "Off we went with about a dozen Dyaks, as the little bronze aborigines of this part of Borneo are called, for guides. The entrance to the cave was so small and so elevated that I had some little difficulty in reaching it. After we had traveled for a short distance we came across the dry bed of a stream. The ground, which was to a great extent composed of the bed of the stream, was rough and irregular. We were lighted on our way by torches carried by our Dyak guides. At last we came to a passage that seemed the veritable eye of a needle, so hard it was to enter, for it looked so narrow and confined that I despaired of ever getting through it. When I finally got squeezed into the breach I could force myself neither upward nor downward—for that was the direction of the passage—and there I was, suspended like Mohammed's coffin or a tortured fowl. By dint of wriggling, however, I at last found myself on the floor of the passage, minus a certain amount of skin and some buttons from my ill-fitting khaki coat.

"Still on we jogged for the best part of a mile, when, lo and behold! the caves in which the birds were found and which were to be the limits of our underground wanderings! A faint glimmer of light could be seen through a rift in the rocks far above us and it was through this small rift, which was a sealed passage even to the Dyaks themselves, that the birds passed in their journeys to and from their nesting grounds. Our arrival, of course, disturbed whatever birds were there, and they disappeared as best they could. And there, for a time, we watched the Dyaks going through their gymnastics of robbing the birds' nests, with their ropes and long poles creeping along the high ridges and leaps in the lurid light of the torches like unearthly specters.

"These peculiar nests are built by a species of swallow. The nests consist of shallow, cup shaped cavities truncated at one side, where they are attached to the rocks like brackets to a wall, and forming something like a two-thirds segment of a circle. It is not always easy to get at them, as they are sometimes glued to the perpendicular sides of the solid rocks high overhead, so that the nest hunters have to scale these crags with rope and poles to get at them. In appearance they consist of an elastic, semi-transparent, mucilaginous material, which is said to be a secretion, or partially digested food, from the crops of the birds themselves.

"As robbing these nests for commercial purposes forms a part of the Dyaks' means of livelihood, the latter have frequently to build two and even three times during the season before they are able to hatch their young, and it is noted that each successive crop of nests deteriorates in the construction and composition. Those built at the beginning of the season are bright and transparent and consequently known as the 'white nests,' but when the last bed the next crop is not quite pure in substance."

MONDAY AS WASH DAY

It May Be a Legacy to Us From the Mayflower Pilgrims.

Did you wonder how it came that in our country all the world they must do their washing on day?

The Mayflower drifted into Massachusetts bay and lay at anchor in a little sheltered cove. Those who had gone ashore to see if there was a place suitable for landing and settling was Monday, and it is said that the old fashioned desire for cleanliness came over the hearts of the housekeeping women of the little band.

The women were rowed ashore and in the cold, salty water of the bay on Monday in November, 1620, the first ladies in America washed their clothes in the good English fashion. When houses were built, water heated and clothes spread out on the trees to dry. When all was finished to the satisfaction of the women they looked with pleasure and said, "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

The Most Accurate Frontier

As an instance of the jealousy existing in the relations between Norway and Sweden it may be noted that the boundary line between the two countries is the most minutely watched in Europe. In every parish through which the line there is deposited a duplicate rate plan which is renewed every ten years, the whole of the work of surveying, etc., being carefully repeated each time.—Pearson's Magazine.

Governor LaFollette will find it different when he gets in the Senate. Many large men in years past have felt mighty uncomfortable when they struck a seat in that body.

WILL BE NO DIFFERENT.

The Imperial Douma is what the Czar of Russia is now talking to his people, but there will never be a representative government in that country so long as Nicholas reigns. He does not want the people to respect him—he only wants them to live in fear of his supreme power.

The new Russian Douma is to be elected on a restricted franchise, or no franchise at all. It is a secret gathering, the meeting being conducted in harmony with the Czar's wishes, and as a result there can be no good for the people come from its deliberations. A parliament without any power except in the emperor is worse than none at all, for the uneasy people will look in vain for some good to come from it, which will cause dissensions.

Under this law not five per cent of the male natives of Russia will have any voice in the selection of the representatives to comprise the parliament. The voting power is given only to men occupying town property at an annual rental of $660 or higher—which, of course means a much higher rental than these figures would mean in this country—or possessing a country estate worth $7,500.

The working classes, the artisans of all grades in the cities, who have been the most active factors in promoting the revolutionary program, are left entirely out. They will have no votes. At this distance it would seem as if the failure to take this class into consideration would prove fatal to popular acceptance of the Czar's program, yet it must be borne in mind that Russia is essentially agricultural.

It is apparent from the many weak places in this new plan of the Emperor that he never intended to lose one iota of power, and innocent people will be thrown into political prisons the same as heretofore, ignorance will triumph as in the past, and when the scars from the war with Japan are healed, the return to most despotic rule will take place and Russia will be the same as before under the same Czar.

TEMPERANCE IS GAINING.

The annual report of the commissioner of internal revenue, recently published, shows that for the first time in seventeen years there has been a decrease in the consumption of distilled spirits in this country, although for three or four years there has been a decline in the rate of increase of consumption of spirits. But, during the fiscal year ending June 30th, there was an actual decrease approximating a million gallons. This was exclusive of the spirits distilled from fruits. However, there was a considerable falling off in the amount of fruit liquors consumed. There was, however, an increase in the consumption of beer, though it was only about half as large as the yearly increase recorded during several previous years.

This is a most gratifying showing, indicating the growth of the temperance spirit throughout the country. During the year covered by the commissioner's figures, just referred to, there were admitted to the country about 1,000,000 immigrants, the great majority of them being men and consumers of beer and wine. This added population would account for the increase in beer consumption, leaving an actual decrease by the native and older population.

The people, considered as a whole, probably have more money now to spend for luxuries than they have had for many years; and they are doubtless spending more for luxuries, but liquors are not included in the list. The people are prosperous, hence are not worried, as would be the case if they were undergoing a period of hard times. Meanwhile the cause of temperance has made a substantial gain.

Like many others, President Roosevelt is lame on the negro question. He wants them to help themselves, and there is where the trouble comes in—they just naturally will do it.

Japan has placed enormous orders in America for the material to be used in building a railroad in Korea. The orders are rush orders and the material includes 350 steel bridges, 150 locomotives and 2,000 cars. By the construction of this railroad it can be plainly seen that Japan has no intention of relinquishing her hold on Manchuria. The delivery of the material is to be made overland. The freigh charges for delivering the whole amount will come to $2,200,000.

Your Habitual Expression.

What kind of an expression do you wear habitually? Is it sour, morose, repellent? Is it a mean, stingy, contemptible, uncharitable, intolerant expression? Do you wear the expression of a hulking, a grasping, greedy, hungry expression, which indicates an avaricious nature? Do you go about among your employees with a thunder cloud expression, with a melancholy, despondent, hopeless look on your face, or do you wear the sunshine expression which radiates good cheer and hope, which indicates a feeling of good will and of helpfulness? Do people smile and look happier when you approach them, or do they shrink from you and feel a chilly goose flesh sensation come over them as they see you approach?

It makes all the difference in the world to you and to those whom you influence what kind of an expression you wear.—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

Red Hair.

When red hair makes its appearance on a human head all lukewarmness is at an end. It is either loved or loathed. Its admirers, with artists in the van, are almost hysterically enthusiastic. They call it golden, though the gold that comes out of the earth is not often exactly that shade. A red haired woman is sure of a success in some quarter, however plain her face or insignificant her figure. The detractors of red hair say it is a sign of bad temper or immorality or both and therefore to be scrupulously avoided.—London Queen.

THE TARANTULA KILLER.

A Giant Wasp That Is the Powerful Spider's Mortal Foe.

The tarantula killer has a bright blue body nearly two inches long and wings of a golden hue. As it flies here and there in the sunlight, gleaming like a flash of fire, one moment resting on a leaf, the next on a granite boulder, it keeps up an incessant buzzing which is caused by the vibration of its wings. No sooner does the tarantula hear this than he trembles with fear, for well he knows the fate in store for him when once his mortal foe has found his whereabouts. This it soon does and hastens to the attack.

At first it is content with flying in circles over its intended victim. Gradually it approaches nearer and nearer. At last, when it is within a few inches the tarantula rises upon his hind legs and attempts to grapple with his foe, but without success. Like a flash the giant wasp is on its back. The deadly fangs have been avoided. The next instant a fearful sting penetrates deep into the spider's body. Its struggles almost cease. A sudden paralysis creeps over it, and it staggers helpless, like a drunken man, first to one side, then to the other.

These symptoms, however, are only of short duration. While they last the wasp, but a few inches away, awaits the result. Nor does it have to wait long. A few seconds and all sign of life has disappeared from the tarantula. The once powerful legs curl up beneath the body, and it rolls over dead.—Chambers' Journal.

THE MILK OF THE AGED.

Honey In the Olden Days Was Thought to Prolong Life.

Honey has been known from the earliest times. The Scriptures make mention of it, and pagan writers celebrated its virtues. It was called "the milk of the aged" and was thought to prolong life. Honey was also used in the embalming of the body after death.

This food, as useful as it is delicious, was esteemed most highly by the Greeks, who celebrated its virtues alike in prose and verse, so that the fame of Attic honey has been transmitted unimpaired to our own day. Used in all kinds of pastry, cake and ragouts, it was also esteemed as a sauce. Pythagoras in the latter part of his life was a vegetarian and lived wholly on bread and honey, a diet which he recommended to his disciples. And this gentle philosopher reached the ripe age of ninety years before he departed from life.

The true source from which honey is derived was only discovered in later years. Virgil supposed that its delicious sweetness fell from heaven upon flowers in the shape of gentle invisible dew, a belief which he shared with Pliny and even Galen. It was left to modern observers to study with enthusiasm plant life and bee life and learn from them some of the most wonderful lessons of nature.

Honey was often served by the ancients at the beginning of a banquet in order that the uncloyed palate might enjoy to the full its exquisite flavor.

The Monkey and the Looking Glass.

A monkey in a wood somehow got a looking glass and went about showing it to the animals around him. The bear looked into it and said he was very sorry he had such an ugly face, the wolf said he would fain have the face of the stag, with its beautiful horns. So every beast felt sad that it had not the face of some other in the wood. The monkey then took it to an owl that had witnessed the whole scene. "No," said the owl, "I would not look into it, for I am sure in this case, as in many others, knowledge is but a source of pain." "You are quite right," said the beasts and broke the glass to pieces, exclaiming, "Ignorance is bliss."

Guilty or Not Guilty.

A war veteran in the customs service told this: In 1864 some one stole horse blankets from the troops stationed at Fort Wadsworth and sold them to an Irishman who lived in the vicinity. When they were traced and he was arrested the judge said, "Why did you steal these blankets?" "Oi didn't steal 'em, yer honor; they belongs to me," was the reply. "But," continued the judge, "they are branded U. S. which means 'United States.'" "No, sure yer honor, they be my name, because U stands for Michael an' S for Murthy."

They Commenced.

An Irishman on being made foreman of a gang of laborers wished to show his authority to those under him on the first morning of his promotion. "Now, look here, boys," said he, "when I say 'Commince' you have all to commince, and them that don't commince when I say commince, commince. So commince commince." Standard.

Friendly Encouragement.

Pearl—All of the girl friends advised them to elope instead of being married in the regular way. Ruby—I don't see why their friends should care. Pearl—Oh, yes! Elopers never expect wedding presents.—Chicago News.

TICKLE THE TROUT.

Do It Cleverly, and You Can Gather Them In Easily.

I once spent my vacation in the little village of Schoenwald, in the Black forest. One day the son of the proprietor of the inn at which I was staying said that he was going out to catch some trout and asked me if I would accompany him. He was in his bare feet, his trousers rolled up, and he had a small, very much elongated keg slung by a strap over his shoulder instead of a creel.

The keg had a square opening on the top side, and he said that he would show me how to catch trout without tackle. We went down to a small brook running through a meadow near the house. He partly filled the keg with water, then, wading a few yards up stream, stooped down and carefully felt under the long grass which hung over the bank. After awhile he lifted a nice brook trout out of the water and put it into the keg and then wading a little farther repeated the operation and took in all some twenty trout out of the brook.

He told me that he caught the fish by feeling carefully around under the grass at the edge of the bank, and when he felt one he tickled and stroked it until by a quick movement he could insert his thumb and forefinger into the fish's gills and then lift it out of the water. I went with him and saw him catch fish in this way several times.—New York Times.

THE CHEEK BONE.

It Is Said to Be the Most Sensitive Part of Our Anatomy.

"What is the most sensitive part of our anatomy?" asked an ivory carver.

"The tip of the tongue," said one.

"The finger tips," said another.

"Wrong; both wrong. It is the small patch of skin over the cheek bone that is our most sensitive part," said the ivory carver, "and in smoothing ivory we always test our work on that patch of skin."

He took up a large ball on which he had been working.

"Here," he said. "Try this. Is it smooth?"

The two visitors tossed the ball in the air and declared it to be smoother than satin or cream.

"Now," said the carver, "test it with your finger tips and your tongue."

These tests were made, and the verdict was given, "still smooth."

"Now test it with your cheek bone."

The visitors in turn rubbed the ivory ball delicately over their cheek bones and uttered exclamations of amazement.

"By Jove, it feels rough!" they said. "The cheek bone must be sensitive."

"Sensitive?" echoed the ivory cutter. "Why, the cheek bone is the only part of us that can lay claim to any sensitiveness at all."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

CHEWING THE HOP.

It First Causes Exhilaration and Then Drowsiness.

"Where hops are raised hop chewers exist," said a farmer. "The habit of hop chewing produces first a pleasant exhilaration and afterward a delicious drowsiness. It is impossible to get drunk on hops, no matter how many you chew.

"In hop growing countries the pickers are forbidden to chew the hops. The pickers, indeed, working piecework, are sensible enough not to chew them, for the drowsiness and jollity that hops bring on make fast picking impossible.

"I have been told that there are tramps who know various herbs that, being chewed, cause drunkenness. I have no doubt this is correct. I have myself seen tramps drink alcohol out of alcohol stoves, kerosene out of oil cans and gasoline out of street lamps. Even cologne, were it not so hard to get, would be eagerly consumed by the tramp, for cologne will produce intoxication.

"If the same foolish conceit and jollity and afterward the same stupor and the same horrible sickness are caused by cologne or gasoline as by whisky, what is the difference which of them we drink?—Exchange.

Theft of the Gainsborough Picture.

Adam Worth was one of the few men who ever eluded the Pinkertons. Worth stole millions on both sides of the Atlantic, eluded the police for years and died in poverty in London. One of his famous exploits was the stealing of the famous picture of the Duchess of Devonshire, by Gainsborough, valued at $50,000. He carried the picture in a false bottom of a trunk for years and finally gave it up after some negotiations with the owners.—Leslie's Monthly.

His Proud Moment.

Mike—Oi hear yez wor' fained foive dollars fer an assiltin' McDooley. Pat—Oi wor', an' it wor a proud moment whin Oi hur-rd th' sinthince, b'gorry! Mike—Phwhat's th' rayson av that? Pat—Faith, an' it show'd which av us had th' best av th' scuffle.—Chicago News.

A rumor is going the rounds at Tampa that the Atlantic Coast Line is to supply rolling stock for, and several naval stores men thereabout, are to construct a railroad to connect with the Atlantic Coast Line spur at West Tampa and traverse the West Coast via Green Springs to Clearwater.

Rev. S. W. Walker, president of the Sutherland Seminary at Sutherland on the West Coast, was married Thursday to Miss Grace Parker of Arcadia at the bride's home. They will spend their honeymoon in California. The fair bride is a graduate of Sutherland and a member of one of the wealthiest families in DeSoto county.

The George E. Wood Lumber Company is still making extensive improvements on the south side of Caryville. Several new cottages for the mill hands have been built within the past few weeks. This locality is used by the colored hands. The old houses will soon be removed and new and convenient cottages will take their place, which will give that section a much more city-like appearance.

The tax values in Washington county for 1904 were $2,022,000, and for 1905 they are $2,240,000, thus giving an increase of $218,000 for the year. The fact, too, must be remembered, that there was no boom in property in the county, nor has there been any unusual influx of property or money from outside the county. The increase simply shows the healthy growth of good old Washington county.—Chipley Banner.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN ALABAMA.

Desperate Negro Kills Three Men and is Shot to Death.

Selma, Ala., August 24.—News has just been received of a wholesale killing that took place at Tunnell Springs, a small station on the Louisville and Nashville railroad between Selma and Flomaton yesterday.

The particular as they could be obtained at this writing, are that a negro named Oliver Lott owed C. Talley a bill, which he had placed in the hands of John and Harry Helton, who were carpenters in the employ of Talley for collection. In trying to force a collection of the debt, a dispute arose and the negro, who was armed, shot and killed John Holton and wounded the other Holton, making his escape. He was soon afterwards pursued by armed men, and when cornered in a house, pulled his gun and shot G. Tally. Tally lingered until 10 o'clock this morning when he died.

The negro Lott was shot to pieces in the house, his body being literally filled with lead.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

Cabinet Confers at Budapest.

Budapest, August 24.—A ministerial conference was held at Ischil, upper Austria, yesterday under the presidency of king-emperor, at which the Hungarian political situation was considered. It is the opinion of the newspapers here that the conference has not resulted in increasing the chances of the understanding between the ministry of the general, Baron Ejvary, and the coalition party in the Hungarian diet. In the event of failure to reach an agreement Premier Fevary will go direct to the king. It is stated, however, that the cabinet will henceforth follow a more vigorous policy and will choose for to break down the positive opposition of the recalcitrant Hungarian authorities.

Gould President of Wabash.

New York, August 24.—George J. Gould was elected acting president of the Wabash railroad by the board of directors before he sailed recently for Europe says the Herald. News of his election to succeed Joseph Ramsey was obtained only yesterday, when it was stated that on his return Mr. Gould would become president of the Wabash system. Mr. Gould is the present head of the Missouri Pacific but his election to the presidency of the Wabash is not regarded as an indication that he will head all of the Gould lines. Edward T. Jeffrey will, it is understood, remain president of the Denver and Rio Grande and the Western Pacific.

The tax values in Washington county for 1904 were $2,022,000, and for 1905 they are $2,240,000, thus giving an increase of $218,000 for the year. The fact, too, must be remembered, that there was no boom in property in the county, nor has there been any unusual influx of property or money from outside the county. The increase simply shows the healthy growth of good old Washington county.—Chipley Banner.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN ALABAMA.

Desperate Negro Kills Three Men and is Shot to Death.

Selma, Ala., August 24.—News has just been received of a wholesale killing that took place at Tunnell Springs, a small station on the Louisville and Nashville railroad between Selma and Flomaton yesterday.

The particular as they could be obtained at this writing, are that a negro named Oliver Lott owed C. Talley a bill, which he had placed in the hands of John and Harry Helton, who were carpenters in the employ of Talley for collection. In trying to force a collection of the debt, a dispute arose and the negro, who was armed, shot and killed John Holton and wounded the other Holton, making his escape. He was soon afterwards pursued by armed men, and when cornered in a house, pulled his gun and shot G. Tally. Tally lingered until 10 o'clock this morning when he died.

The negro Lott was shot to pieces in the house, his body being literally filled with lead.

Walters of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

Cabinet Confers at Budapest.

Budapest, August 24.—A ministerial conference was held at Ischil, upper Austria, yesterday under the presidency of king-emperor, at which the Hungarian political situation was considered. It is the opinion of the newspapers here that the conference has not resulted in increasing the chances of the understanding between the ministry of the general, Baron Ejvary, and the coalition party in the Hungarian diet. In the event of failure to reach an agreement Premier Fevary will go direct to the king. It is stated, however, that the cabinet will henceforth follow a more vigorous policy and will choose for to break down the positive opposition of the recalcitrant Hungarian authorities.

Gould President of Wabash.

New York, August 24.—George J. Gould was elected acting president of the Wabash railroad by the board of directors before he sailed recently for Europe says the Herald. News of his election to succeed Joseph Ramsey was obtained only yesterday, when it was stated that on his return Mr. Gould would become president of the Wabash system. Mr. Gould is the present head of the Missouri Pacific but his election to the presidency of the Wabash is not regarded as an indication that he will head all of the Gould lines. Edward T. Jeffrey will, it is understood, remain president of the Denver and Rio Grande and the Western Pacific.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Some Facts Concerning It That Are Not Generally Known.

Though every schoolboy presumably knows to a nicety where the Cape of Good Hope is situated, there does undoubtedly prevail in less enlightened circles some vagueness of conception as to the exact locality of that celebrated headland. Even the gentle reader is faintly conscious of uncertainty and answers with a briskness not born of conviction: "The Cape of Good Hope? Why, of course I know where it is. Down at the end of South Africa." Gentle reader, you are not very far out, fifty or a hundred miles perhaps. And, as you say, it is not of the slightest consequence from a practical point of view.

The Cape of Good Hope lies at a considerable distance from the end and is, in fact, the middle of the three promontories, severally inconspicuous, which jointly terminate a slender peninsula, some twenty miles in length, forming the barrier between False bay and the Atlantic ocean on the west. These three headlands, lying near together and commonly undivided on a map of moderate scale, are locally designated Cape Point. It was here that Bartholomew Diaz first encountered in full force the prevalent southeasterly gales and denounced the rugged, threatening, threefold promontory under the sounding appellation of the Cape of Storms, to be afterward rechristened by pious, trustful hearts the Cape of Good Hope. The Cape of Storms, the Cape of Good Hope, Cape Farewell! Is there nothing in a name?

STOP IT.

Boasting of what you can do instead of doing it.

Thinking that life is a grind and not worth living.

Exaggerating and making mountains out of molehills.

Talking continually about yourself and your affairs.

Saying unkind things about acquaintances and friends.

Thinking that all the good chances and opportunities are gone by.

Thinking of yourself to the exclusion of everything and every one else.

Speculating as to what you would do in some one else's place and do your best in your own.

Gazing idly into the future and dreaming about it instead of making the most of the present.

Longing for the good things that others have instead of going to work and earning them for yourself.—Success.

A Hurricane.

The terrors of the deep were perhaps never more thrillingly set forth than in the description by a young lady who last year made her first trip abroad. She kept a diary, very much, says the New York Herald, like that of Mark Twain, when for seven days he recorded the fact that he "got up, washed and went to breakfast."

There was one important exception. When she crossed the channel the experience was so trying that she felt impelled to describe it.

"I firmly resolved to stay on deck," she wrote, "although the tempest increased to such a frightful hurricane that it was only with the greatest difficulty that I could hold up my parasol."

A Wonderful Memory.

Hortensius, the Roman orator, could repeat word for word a book he had just read. On one occasion he made a wager with one Sisenna and to win it went to an auction, remained all day and in the evening gave a list of all the articles sold, the prices paid for them and the names of the purchasers. The accuracy of his memory was in this case attested by the auctioneer's clerk, who followed the recapitulation with his book and found that in no case had the man of wonderful memory made a single mistake.

Manners.

Manners are of more importance than laws. In a great measure the laws depend on them. The law touches us but here and there and now and then. Manners are what vex or soothe, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarize or refine us, by a constant, steady, uniform (insensible operation, like that of the air we breathe. They give their whole color to our lives. According to their quality they aid morals, they supply them or they totally destroy them.—Burke.

Kitchens in the Tropics.

The kitchens of tropical countries, such as are to be found in our Spanish-American lands, are like cells from the thickness of the stone walls—often two or three feet deep—and the projecting, omnipresent veranda, which gives a grateful shade and which looks out on a court. The cell resemblance is enhanced by the iron bars at the windows and the heavy double doors which look as if they could resist a siege. The walls are whitewashed, and the floors are of tiles. The dining room is often separated from this room by a long staircase. Outside the kitchen in the court will stand table and closets to supplement the scant furniture of the small, hot apartment with a furnace-like fire.

WILLS OF LUNATICS.

The Queer Bequests That Are Made by Insane Persons.

One of the manias which are evidenced by the insane is a desire to make a will. Of course these documents are waste paper as far as their legality is concerned, but the attendants and doctors treat these documents with the greatest respect in order to humor the demented creatures.

Some of these wills would be amusing if it were not for the sad condition of mind of which they are the outcome. One man confined in an asylum left all his money to the mikado of Japan on condition that this dignitary should visit the grave of the testator once each year and plant chrysanthemums upon it. The remainder of the estate was to be handed over to an imaginary charity called the Brotherly Love and Bounty society.

Another lunatic in a Parisian asylum left a will devising the whole of his estate to the possessors of Roman noses residing in and near Paris. The reason for this was that he had rather a handsome nose of this shape and was constantly admiring it. A similar bequest was that of a patient who left his property to an attendant because he possessed one of the ugliest nasal organs the testator had ever seen.

One man, who was afflicted with the mania that he was sane, but confined in the asylum unjustly, devised a will leaving his money to the commissioners of lunacy to enable them to engage a large staff of men for the purpose of visiting asylums and ascertaining if any were confined in them without reason.—New York Times.

The Uncomfortable Collar.

"I don't know what is the matter with these collars," said Smartboy to the salesman. "They seemed all right when I bought them yesterday. But I had to use a button hook to connect them with my collar button this morning. They fit as though they were intended for my little brother."

"There are two ways to put on a collar," replied the salesman, "and you seem to have chosen the wrong way. I noticed it when you were here yesterday, but it was not up to me to tell you. I've been jumped on for volunteering that information more than once. Most men think it does not make any difference whether you button the right side or the left of a collar first. It makes all the difference in the world in the comfort and set of the collor, no matter what shape it is. Undo that collar you are wearing, button the right side first, and you'll be glad you're alive."—New York Press.

Frank English Servants.

The English servants, whether they prove better when engaged, are certainly franker than American servants in declaring their weaknesses in advertising for employment. The columns of a London paper disclose their amiable candidness. In the first advertisement the applicant confesses to "drink a temptation, but not an inebriate;" the next pleads as her recommendation that she is "faithful, but plain of speech;" a third requires a place where "manual work is light," but does not say of what intellectual work she is capable, while a fourth is described as a "dishonest girl of seventeen." Should the mistress be too hypercritical to engage any of the above attractive servants she has still another opportunity—perhaps "she will be willing to train for domestic service a rough coster girl desirous of redeeming character."

Lighting London in 1715.

The question of the lighting of London was settled in simple fashion in 1715. The common council "repealed, annulled and made void all the former acts concerning the lighting of London" as a preliminary measure and then proceeded to enact that "all housekeepers whose house, door or gateway fronts or lies next to any street, lane or public passage or place of the said city shall in every dark night—that is, every night between the second night after each full moon and the seventh night after each full moon—set or hang out one or more lights with sufficient cotton wicks that shall continue to burn from 6 o'clock at night till 11 o'clock of the same night on penalty of a shilling."

Good Horse, Good Rider.

Judging from the following story which Arthur J. Smythe tells in his biography of William Terriss, it is evident that the practice of betting on horse races was among the great dislikes of the popular actor.

When any one asked him what horse he was going to back he would say:

"I'm going to back a little filly I've often backed before. I've never won anything on it; yet, strange to say, I've never lost a penny."

"Oh, whatever horse is that?" might have been the inquiry.

"A little filly called Common Sense, ridden by Tommy Let It Alone," was the invariable answer.—London Telegraph.

The regard one shows economy in like that we show an old aunt who is to leave us something at last.—Shropshire.

Charles King, the American who was to be hanged September 1 at Ottowa, Ont., has been granted a reprieve until September 30. The inaguration of Albert as new governor is to take place on September 1, and the government postponed the hanging on that account.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nushbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Twenty Injured in Collision.

New York, August 24.—Twenty persons were injured, some of them very seriously, in a collision between two trains in one of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit terminals at Coney island, early today. The injured were hastily removed to the hospital and after their wounds had been dressed most of them were able to go home. The wreck was caused by a train entering the Terminal and striking a crowded one about to leave for the city. Windows were broken, the first car was partly smashed and the overhead wires briken. Falling wires coming in contact with the tracks sent up thick masses of sparks and there was a wild panic among the passengers during which mmany women were trampled under foot.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne county, Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them, which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is an excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms—it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Cure for Leprosy Discovered.

Manila, August 24—What appears to be a well authenticated instance of the cure of leprosy by the X-ray treatment has been found here. A few weeks ago a patient who had been afflicted with leprosy, and who had been under treatment for that disease, died of liver complaint. After the patients' demise every part of the body was subjected to a searching microscopic examination by bacteriologists, but not the slightest trace of leprosy could be found. Dr. H. B. Wilkinson, the physician who treated the patient for leprosy, is a graduate of the University of Virginia, class of 1894.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Cattle Has Texas Fever.

Columbus, Ga., August 24—Texas fever has been discovered among cattle around Midland, Hamilton and West Point, Ga., and Opelika, Ala. A veterinary surgeon of this city has just made trips to those places and is satisfied that it is genuine Texas fever that has appeared. The fever is conveyed from one cow to another by means of a tick, the method of transmission being inoculation. The disease is not necessarily fatal, but often causes many deaths among cattle when they are not properly treated.

Given Up to Die.

E. Spiegel, 1304 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run-down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Court Ignored by Railroad.

Macon, Ga., August 24—Business men from Augusta say that the railroads have paid little attention to the spirit of the injunction recently issued by Judge Speer to prevent them from so discriminating against the Augusta river line of steamers that freight cannot be carried from Augusta to the east except by rail. It is said that the roads have taken off the through rates and arranged the locals so that the steamers cannot touch the business.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or grip and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Caused Excitement.

Considerable excitement was caused by seeing a half dozen coffins being taken up the stairway that leads to the studio of Photographer Smith yesterday and many conjectures were heard. One man said that the yellow fever must have broken out, and another thought a medical college had commenced business.

But it was later learned that the Gainesville Coffin Company was preparing to send another salesman on the road and some photos were being made to show the trade the fine quality of work turned out by this concern. This company is making some fine work and building up a good trade.

But the appearance of the coffins caused some excitement and many wanted to know who was dead.

NEW YORK RACKET.

CHEAPEST STORE ON EARTH

The last cheap Rice to be had before the new crop comes in.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

New Orleans Improving, but the Surrounding Towns Get Worse.

New Orleans, August 24.—The new cases up to noon to day were 27; deaths 3. Total cases to date 1,583, and the total number of deaths 222.

The situation in the city is apparently improved, but the State is bringing forth new cases every day, with a strong increase in Hanson City and St. Charles parish.

There is trouble between the governors of Alabama and Louisiana, because Louisianians are not permitted to pass through Alabama unless they spend seven days' detention.

Dr. R. B. Leach, with his arsenic tablets, is causing much demoralization among the medical students in the city. He has got many people lined up for and against his theory of preventing yellow fever.

HAD MANY NAMES

And Used Them to Get Goods at High Springs.

A fellow whose name is Peter Young had been working a very flimsy game on the merchants of High Springs, until finally they got next to his game and had him arrested.

It seems that he went to a large number of the stores in High Springs, and at each one, by telling a very plausible story would get credit, giving a fictitious name and a different one at each place. He was arrested by Marshal G. L. Bryant, had a hearing before Justice Bexley and given 90 days' camp duty in the manufacture of turpentine.

He was brought to this city yesterday by Marshal Bryant, and will be taken at once to the county convict camp.

An Able Divine.

Rev. Sam J. White of Lake Butler was in the city a short time yesterday on his way home from McIntosh, where he has been holding religious revivals for a week. The reverend gentleman is of the Christian Church faith, is a most eloquent orator, a most agreeable companion in a social way, and would lead one to believe that the life of a true Christian should be cheerful. He has had good success in his work as an evangelist.

New Realty Company.

Dr. G. N. Davis, George W. Scofield and B. B. Hopson have formed a partnership, and will engage in the real estate business. The members composing this firm are hustlers, full of energy, and will no doubt make a fine success of the venture.

The office of the firm will be located in the Endel block, corner of West Main and West Liberty streets.

Surveying Party.

M. G. Taylor has gone to Wildwood, Sumter county, where he will be joined by B. T. Richards and C. S. Hill, from which place they will depart on Monday to survey a quantity of timbered land for the Cummer Lumber Company, which is located in Marion county. The party will be absent for several weeks and will enjoy camp life at least a portion of the time.

Registration Notice.—Notice is hereby given that the registration books of the City of Gainesville are now open at my office in the United States land office, where all persons qualified to register, including residents of the new territory added to the corporate limits of the city by the new charter enacted by the last Legislature, may register between the hours of 8 and 12 a. m. and 1 and 4 p. m. Books close on Saturday, September 9th, 1905. J. M. DEAL, City Clerk.

A card from Dr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Stroope bears information that they are now enjoying themselves in Yellowstone Park, after a delightful trip to points in California, Washington and other Pacific slope States. They expect to arrive in Gainesville about October 15, and it is needless to add that they will be gladly welcomed by their numerous friends here.

T. Denby left yesterday for Winter Garden, Orange county, where he will engage in the fruit and vegetable industry. Mr. Denby has been engaged in the same line of business in this county for upwards of fifteen years, which eminently fits him for the work, and his many friends wish him success in his new location.
